Innovations for Poverty Action

Article Link
http://www.thehindubusinessline.com/2006/08/02/stories/2006080203152100.htm

Group lending efficiency must be improved

The group lending model of microfinance in India can do with less stringency, according to Dean Karlan. Flexibility towards individual lending should be explored.

Related Projects:
Impact of Group versus Individual Liability in the Philippines
Business Education for Microcredit Clients in Peru
Interest Rates and Consumer Credit in South Africa

August 02, 2006