Annie Duflo in the Malawi Business Times on Stakeholder Engagement

IPA Executive Director Annie Duflo's interview with the Malawi Business Times discusses IPA's work to facilitate stakeholder engagement on key impact evaluations in the country. IPA has been working with the Malawi Microfinance Network (MAMN) to scale up a fingerprinting program shown to improve loan repayment rates. The Malawi team is also planning a series of free trainings for stakeholders on what constitutes good evidence to inform future decision-making. Read the full interview here (PDF).
