

Coverage of IPA & J-PAL policy work in Peru

IPA Peru, together with J-PAL Latin America and Caribbean and San Pablo Catholic University co-organized a workshop titled "Evidence-based public policy: Impact Evaluation." The workshop's objective was to contribute to promote the use and generation of evidence on the impact of social programs in the Arequipa region of Peru, in order to improve the effectiveness and efficiency of public policies to the benefit of the poorest populations. The event was covered by the papers Diario El Pueblo and Diario La Voz.
