

Panel at 2° Seminario Impulsando el Ahorro Voluntario

On September 27th, Maria Aranzazu Rodriguez Uribe (IPA Colombia) moderated a panel at the 2° Seminario Impulsando el Ahorro Voluntario (2nd Seminar Promoting Voluntary Savings). The event, hosted by the IADB and the Mexican pension authority, CONSAR, brought together key players in the Mexican long-term savings space to discuss policies and practices aiming to encourage long-term voluntary savings. The IPA panel focused on the idea of using behavioral science to promote voluntary savings, with panelists from various pension providers and policymakers describing their latest work on the topic. Panelists included Enrique Solórzano, Director General AFORE Sura; Eduardo Villarreal, Director General AFORE Invercap; José Ignacio Jiménez, Director General AFORE Inbursa; David Munguía, Associate at ideas42; and Víctor Baeza, Director General de Supervisión, CONSAR.

City

Mexico City

Country

Mexico