

Article Link<http://www.thefinancialexpress-bd.com/2017/07/16/77141/RMG-faces-challenge-to-w...>

IPA Study on Female Garment Workers in Bangladesh Featured in The Financial Express

The Financial Express of Bangladesh reports on a recent conference co-organized by IPA where researcher Christopher Woodruff presented findings from his study on female managers in the garment industry. As part of his presentation, Woodruff identified three obstacles to women being promoted: lower levels of self-confidence in female candidates; resistance from others - especially males; and ambivalent attitudes of higher-level managers to promote women to supervisory roles.

July 16, 2017